

REVIEW OF THE TINKHUNDLA BOUNDARIES

According to the Constitution Section 91 –

- (1) During the fourth year of Parliament, the Elections and Boundaries Commission shall review the number and boundaries of tinkhundla (constituencies) into which Swaziland is divided and submit to the King a report with recommendations to change or retain the existing position.
- (2) The report under this section shall be made at least nine months before dissolution of Parliament in terms of section 134 (2)
- (3) The boundaries of each Inkhundla shall be such that the number of inhabitants of an Inkhundla is as nearly equal to the population quota as is reasonably practicable having regard to the terrain, the means of communication (transport) within that Inkhundla and any other relevant community interest.
- (4) The boundaries of an Inkhundla shall not extend over more than one Region.
- (5) In this section "population quota" means the number obtained by dividing the number of inhabitants of the Region (as ascertained by reference to the latest national population census) by the number of Tinkhundla into the Region is to be divided under section 80.
