

REPRESENTATION OF WOMEN

- According to Section 84, subsection (2) of the constitution of Swaziland states that the women of Swaziland and other marginalized groups have a right to equitable representation in Parliament and other public structures.
- According to Section 86 of the constitution of Swaziland
  - Where at the first meeting of the House after any general election it appears that female members of Parliament will not constitute at least thirty per centum of the total membership of parliament, then, and only then, the provisions of this section shall apply.
  - For the purpose of this section, the House shall form itself into electoral college and not elect not more than four on a regional basis to the House in accordance with the provisions of section 95 (3)

